

DEPARTMENT OF IMMIGRATION Monthly Bulletin

Issue III | July 2026

"Safeguarding National Security through Professionalism and Excellence"

THE MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS AT A GLANCE

In Focus – July 2026

1. Celebrating our People: Staff Promotions

31 officials across six immigration offices received broadband promotions, recognizing their dedication and service to the Nation.

2. Document Management System Developed

The Department has deployed an in-house Document Management System, developed at ZERO cost, to securely centralize official records, enhance document retrieval and strengthen institutional records management.

Know Your Rules: eVISA

1. Ensure Your eVisa is Valid Before Travelling

Foreigners travelling to Bhutan, other than those eligible to get Visa-on-Arrival, must obtain a prior eVisa clearance before travel. The eVisa must be valid for entry into Bhutan on the the actual date of travel/arrival. Travelling before the approved entry date may result in penalty and deportation.

2. Amend Your Travel Dates Before Travelling

Any changes to the intended travel dates must be applied for and approved prior to travel.

Staff in focus

Nim Dorji
Sr. ICT Associate III
Department of Immigration
Thimphu

This month, we recognize Mr. Nim Dorji for his initiative, innovation, and technical expertise in developing the Department's Document Management System in-house at no cost.
